DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

JOANNE ROMANOW

Joanne has always had a deep love and appreciation for music. Formal music education began in high school and continued at the University of Western Ontario, where she received a Bachelor of Music (Honours Music Education) and a Bachelor of Education. For over 50 years, Joanne has conducted or performed in many ensembles including quartets and quintets, concert, swing and Dixieland bands, pit and symphony orchestras, and choirs (including ensembles in Hamilton, London, Brantford, Burlington, Oakville, Mississauga, Dundas, Ancaster, St. Catharines, Mississauga, Niagara Falls, and two European tours).

After a very successful teaching career of 32 years, Joanne is now devoting more time to pursuing other musical interests such as conducting, performing in multiple ensembles, and learning new musical genres. She also took advantage of the opportunity to teach in China, helping Chinese teachers of English improve their English comprehension, listening and speaking skills, and learn Western teaching methodologies. Joanne thinks she learned more than she taught while working with the delightful Chinese teachers!

Currently, Joanne is also the Music Director of the Haldimand Norfolk Concert Band. She fills her days and nights playing trombone and upright bass with seven other ensembles, and is a sub for other groups, as time permits.

In her spare time Joanne enjoys photography, arranging music, travelling with her husband Paul (a BCB saxophonist/clarinetist), and volunteering with several community organizations, including knitting over 600 hats for those in need.

ABOUT ENCHORUS

Enchorus Children's Choir started in October 2012 by director, Catherine Richardson, at the request of the Burlington Concert Band. The intent was to sing for the concert and then disband, but the choir members wanted to continue. This year, Enchorus celebrates 10 years of wonderful, musical experiences and outstanding, long-lasting friendships.

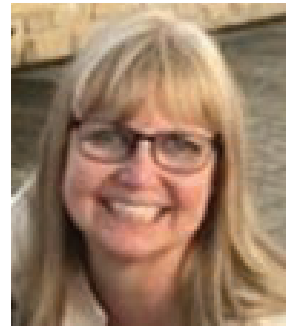

The members of the choir are amazing young people in Grade 2 to 12, who come from the Burlington, Oakville, and Hamilton area. They are all passionate about singing, and love to bring joy to the audiences who hear them.

Since 2012, they have performed in six performances with the Burlington Concert Band, and have shared concerts with the Tempus Choral Society, Burlington Civic Chorale, Circle of Harmony, Burlington Welsh Male Chorus, and at many community events, including singing at a Marlies hockey game in Toronto. This season, Enchorus sang at the Aldershot Tree Lighting, the Candlelit Stroll held in downtown Burlington and will be collaborating with the Burlington Welsh Ladies Chorus for a fundraising concert in Hamilton for the Hôpital Albert Schweitzer in Haiti on December 11, 2022. Enchorus would like to say a huge thank you to their accompanist extraordinaire, Nadia Mattar, and to their guest accompanist, Daniel Lu, for sharing his talents. Special thanks are sent out to rehearsal assistants Frana Barry, Alison English and Cathy Fairley.

Enchorus Children's Choir wishes everyone a musically wonderful and happy Christmas season!

CATHERINE RICHARDSON, DIRECTOR

Catherine is a graduate of the University of Toronto and holds an ARCT in Flute Performance. She is passionate about her work as a choral director, professional flutist, and music educator. Catherine is the flutist with the Variante Harp & Flute Duo, who have released 4 CDs that have been aired on CBC Radio and 96.3 FM. In 2019, Catherine retired as a music teacher with the Halton District School Board after 35 years, where she earned the Inspire Award for teaching. One of her most memorable choral experiences was conducting a 600-voice choir of students in Grade 4 to 12 at First Ontario Concert Hall in Hamilton with accompanist, Nadia Mattar. Catherine also teaches private flute lessons and is the founder and artistic director of ChoralFest Burlington, and the Don Banks Music Awards in Toronto.

NADIA MATTAR, ACCOMPANIST

Nadia graduated with a degree in Music and French from McMaster University. Nadia is a sensitive musician, and an energetic, well-loved Grade 2 teacher with the Halton District School Board. Enchorus is so pleased that Nadia has become part of the Enchorus family.
