DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

JOANNE ROMANOW

Joanne has always had a deep love and appreciation for music, and for those who make the magic happen! Formal music education began in high school and continued at the University of Western Ontario, where she received a Bachelor of Music (Honours Music Education) and a Bachelor of Education.

For over 50 years, Joanne has conducted or performed in many ensembles including quartets and quintets, concert, swing and Dixieland bands, pit and symphony orchestras, and choirs (including ensembles in Hamilton, London, Brantford, Burlington, Oakville, Mississauga, Dundas, Ancaster, St. Catharines, Mississauga, Niagara Falls, and two European tours).

After a very successful teaching career of 32 years, Joanne is now devoting more time to pursuing other musical interests such as conducting, performing in multiple ensembles, and learning new musical genres. She also took advantage of the opportunity to teach in China, helping Chinese teachers of English improve their English comprehension, listening and speaking skills, and learn Western teaching methodologies. Joanne thinks she learned more than she taught while working with the delightful Chinese teachers!

Currently, Joanne is also the Music Director of the Haldimand Norfolk Concert Band and Interim Music Director for the Thorold Reed Band. She fills her days and nights playing trombone and upright bass with five other ensembles, and is a sub for other groups, as time permits.

In her spare time Joanne enjoys photography, arranging music, travelling with her husband Paul (a BCB saxophonist/clarinetist), and volunteering with several community organizations, including knitting over 700 hats and pairs of mittens for those in need.

He was awarded the Merriam School of Music Scholarship in 2010. In 2015 he received a certificate from the Ontario Band Association Wind Conducting Symposium at York University. His interest in conducting started in 2004 when he co-founded the St. Cecelia's Youth Orchestra (SCYO). He was Lead Conductor of SCYO from 2004-2009.
